PC:

By this petition petition the petitioner has challenged the interim order passed by the Minister for Cooperation, who while admitting the revision application has granted stay of the proceedings and has directed that the matter be listed for hearing.

Inspite of the fact though seven months have passed no hearing has taken place. This petition can be conveniently disposed of by by requesting the Minister for Cooperation to to hear the matter as expeditiously as possible preferably in two weeks. Order accordingly. Writ petition stands disposed of.
